Additional Information:

Who doesn't love a free concert? The Dayton VA Medical Center has joined Help Hospitalized Veterans to thank Veterans and their families with a community-wide concert featuring country music artist, Daryle Singletary. The concert is part of a weeklong National Salute to Veterans celebration, specifically connected to Valentine's Day. This is an opportunity to express our respect and appreciation to all Veterans who have served and protected our great nation. The concert will be taking place at Memorial Hall in downtown Dayton. The doors will open at 6pm and the concert will begin at 7pm.

The radio-thon free ticket distribution is taking place at the Dayton VA Medical Center on January 26th, 2013 from 11:00 am – 1:00 pm in Building 341, Prime Care Lobby hosted by Frye Guy from radio station K99.1 FM. The concert open to Veterans and their families and the price has already been paid for by their service and sacrifice to our country. There is a limit of two tickets per Veteran and they must bring proof of Veteran status (Veteran ID Card, DD214, Retirement ID, etc.) to receive tickets. A flu clinic set will also be available during the radio-thon for Veterans to receive their flu shots. Beat the flu and guarantee your spot to see Daryle Singletary. We are looking forward to a night of fun! Are you?
