Dayton VA Medical Center to host enrollment event

DAYTON, Ohio — The Dayton VA Medical Center is scheduled to host a Veterans enrollment event for Dayton-area Veterans Nov. 14 on campus in the Building 305 multi-purpose room.

There will be three classes throughout the day to accommodate Veterans at 10 a.m., 2 p.m., and 6 p.m.

Each class will cover eligibility and enrollment for VA health care and will provide help in filling out the application. Representatives from the Veterans Benefits Administration and the National Cemetery Administration will be available to answer questions as well.

Veterans are encouraged to RSPV before showing up by calling 937-262-2159.

Attendees should bring copies of their DD214, driver's license or state ID, social security card, insurance cards (front and back), power of attorney (if applicable), last year's gross income, and last year's non-reimbursable medical expenses.
